

Squid®

A revolutionary textile look for windows

Squid® is a self-adhesive and printable textile that gives you brand new options for interior window decoration, proving a big hit across interior design and architectural applications. It's the straightforward way to create fresh new looks in homes, offices, hotels and public spaces.

This innovative textured material lets you see out during the day, while making it hard to see in from outside. You can take your pick from six on-trend colours - Chalk, Bone, Oak, Ash, Rock or Coal - All with a winning 'natural textile' look and feel. The fabric is both moisture and heat resistant, and very easy to tailor to your exact specifications. Squid® Series performs very well with a variety of print platforms, and offers a grade especially designed to suit latex inks. Squid® is easy to install, maintain and remove and comes with a durability up to 5 years.
